UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

CYRUS A. PARSA et al.
Plaintiffs,
v.
GOOGLE L.L.C. et al.,
Defendants.

Case No.: 19-cv-2407-CAB-AHG
DISMISSAL WITHOUT PREJUDICE

In this matter, Plaintiff filed a complaint on December 16, 2019 [Doc. No. 1], and the summons was issued that same day [Doc. No. 2]. On February 26, 2020, Plaintiff filed an amended complaint [Doc. No. 3], and an amended summons was issued that same day [Doc. No. 4]. No other activity has occurred in this case, and there is no indication on the docket that either complaint has been served on any of the dozens of defendants. Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(m), “[i]f a defendant is not served within 90 days after the complaint is filed, the court—on motion or on its own after notice to the plaintiff—must dismiss the action without prejudice against that defendant or order that service be made within a specified time.” Thus, on May 5, 2020, the Court ordered Plaintiff to show cause, in writing, on or before May 19, 2020, why this matter should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute. The order stated that failure to timely respond would result in dismissal of this lawsuit. It is now almost two weeks after the deadline for a response, and no further activity has occurred on the docket of this case. Accordingly, consistent with

1 the Court’s order to show cause, it is hereby ORDERED that this case is DISMISSED
2 WITHOUT PREJUDICE for failure to prosecute.

3 It is SO ORDERED.

4 Dated: June 1, 2020
